

I had a complain with Wells Fargo as well.. I sure hope you get them stopped. I just threaten them by certified mail, not to call my home and they have honored my request. They were calling my home over a 16.50 late fee calling my house over 10 times a day every day after talking to your office and the advise i received they had stopped. Good luck